

REGEXP (RLIKE) comparison operators

`^` - match the beginning of a string

`$` - match the end of a string

`.` – match any character

`[...]` match any character listed between the brackets

`[^...]` match any character not listed between the brackets

`p1|p2|p3` – matches any of the patterns p1,p2, or p3

`*` - match zero or more instances of preceding element

`+` - match one or more instances of the preceding element

`?` – match either zero or one instance of the preceding element

`{n}` – match n instances of the preceding element

`{m,n}` – match m through n instances of preceding element